

DIG DEEPER INTO SOIL HEALTH

URBAN AND SUBURBAN LANDSCAPES

Healthy, living soils improve water storage and water quality, reduce pest problems, are resilient to drought, temperature extremes, fire and flood, and much more.

Local practitioners at parks departments, ISDs, counties, drainage districts, hospital campuses, MUDs and municipalities will benefit from attending with homeowners, urban gardeners and farmers, and small landowners welcome.

Registration Required
tx.ag/SoilHealthApr29

FIELD DAY

TUESDAY, APRIL 29

8:30am - 12:30pm

Start and End @ Sylvan Rodriguez Park

1201 Clear Lake City Blvd, Houston, TX 77062

- Hands-on Demonstrations
- Expert Guides
- Soil Health Principles in Action
- Transportation Provided
- Multiple locations: including Almeda Road Nature Reserve

DISASTER ASSESSMENT
AND RECOVERY

A PROGRAM OF TCEQ

HPARD
HOUSTON PARKS
AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT
A CAPRA Accredited Agency

Prepared in cooperation with the Texas
Commission on Environmental Quality and
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency